

Stephen Victor is a business consultant, writer, visionary, mystic, poet and pioneer in the fields of human possibility and consciousness. He works in Europe and the Middle East, as well as the United States.

His practice includes providing counsel, teaching and training individuals, businesses, the film industry, NGOs and governmental agencies focusing on ecological interpersonal business communications, interactions and transactions, resolving personal, structural and process generated conflict, and reconciling unseen impediments to flow and creativity within human systems and organizational intelligence.

Stephen grew up in small rural towns in middle North America. He served in the US Navy and law enforcement. He holds a B.S. in Sociology.

Trained as an NLP Master Practitioner, Stephen convened and conducted NLP Practitioner Certification training, led personal growth seminars and provided consultancy and mediation services to businesses, organizations and educational institutions. He developed and facilitated Fields of Grace® public workshops. These workshops are conducted throughout the U.S., Europe and The Middle East.

In 1994 he founded Stephen Victor Inc., Victor Leadership Counsel and later, The Wisdom Collaborative whose work has been accessing the unseen fields and human systems that individuals, businesses and organizations are a party to: identifying and clearing impediments to goals and fostering creative movement into one's desired future, with the imperative that it is time to bring oneself to bear in our life.

In 1998 Stephen began to work with Andean Mystic Juan Nunez del Prado and his son Ivan in taking, with Valerie, his partner, groups into the Peruvian Andes on 10-day initiations into the Andean Spiritual Cosmology.

Stephen and Juan provide Practical Mystic seminars blending Andean practices with Stephen's work in fields of energy. These programs are convened in the US, Southern and Northern Europe.

He lives in Ashland, Oregon with his family
